DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to applicant's response to non final office action filed on March 9, 2009 in which claims 1-13 are presented for further examination.

In response of Applicants amendments and remarks arguments with respect to the rejection of claims 1-13 under Kishimoto (US 2002/00138290 A1) and IBM Technical disclosure (User Logon Profile, August 1991) have been fully considered and are persuasive.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The present application has been thoroughly reviewed. Upon searching a variety of databases, the examiner respectfully submits that claims 1-13 are allowable in light of the Applicant's arguments and in light of the prior art made of record.

Reason for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention relates to an Information processing apparatus, and method for retaining security. The closest prior art Kishimoto (US 2002/00138290A1) is directed to an Information-processing apparatus and information-processing method and IBM Technical disclosure (User Logon Profile, August 1991) to a User Profile Management. However, Kishimoto and IBM either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render obvious the recited features "after one user has performed a logon procedure to log on to said apparatus...until a logoff procedure concerning said logged-on user is performed" and "spreading/storing unit", "program executing unit", "saving unit", and "a restoring unit, executing, as necessary after a specific logged-off user executes another logon procedure, a restoring process of referencing the management information and thereby copying and restoring the saving object file or files, saved in the external storage device, into the data storage unit such that the saving object file or files prepared or renewed based on tasks by said specific user are present in the data storage unit only when said specific user is logged on" all units based on "logon procedures" These features in conjunction with all other limitations of the dependent and independent claims render claims 1-13 allowable.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
